

Dr. Lukas Braunschweiler¹Former member of the Sulzer Board of Directors (2018-2021)

Born 1956 – Switzerland

Career

Dr. Lukas Braunschweiler joined the Sulzer Board of Directors in 2018. He served as CEO of the Sonova Group, Switzerland (2011 – 2018). Before joining Sonova, he was CEO of the technology group Ruag, Switzerland (2009 to 2011). Before that, he headed the Dionex Corporation, California, as president & CEO. The company is active in the life sciences industry and listed on the Nasdaq stock exchange (2002 to 2009). From 1995 to 2002 he held various positions at the precision instruments manufacturer Mettler Toledo in Switzerland and the US.

Binding interests

- Member of the Board of Directors of the Schweiter Technology Group, Switzerland

Educational background

- Master of Science in Analytical Chemistry, Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETH), Switzerland
- PhD in Physical Chemistry, Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETH), Switzerland

¹ This CV does not refer to changes occurring after the Annual General Meeting on April 14, 2021.